

Figure 2. Association between relative brain size (A), brain weight (B) and intertegral distance (C) with the degree of habitat occupancy by habitat type (i.e., natural, agricultural and urban). The shaded and coloured areas by habitat type represent 95% credible intervals.